

A) Fire safety certificate or simplified inspection certificate

Your accommodation establishment must meet fire protection standards.

In order to prove this, you must obtain a certificate from the mayor of the municipality where the accommodation establishment is located and have it renewed every five years.

You must request a simplified inspection certificate or a fire safety certificate, depending on the type of operation planned.

a) You wish to run a hotel, an aparthotel, a social tourism accommodation centre or a campsite

b) You wish to offer home-stay accommodation or run a furnished tourist lodging or a tourist residence

- You will simultaneously operate fewer than 6 accommodations

How many people can your establishment and any other tourist accommodation within your building accommodate? What is the 'maximum total capacity' of your establishment?

- The maximum capacity is the number of people for which the establishment is designed, plus the number of tourists that can be accommodated with extra beds.
- The maximum total capacity is the sum of the maximum capacities of the tourist accommodations located in the same building.

The maximum total capacity is at least 10 people:

B) Urban planning certificate

The planned activity must comply with the destination of the building as mentioned in the urban planning permit or in the applicable land use plans.

To confirm this, you must obtain a certificate of compliance with the land management and urban planning standards from the urban planning service in the municipality where your accommodation is located.

The municipality will decide whether or not to grant you the certificate based on the analysis of your dossier.

C) Accord écrit des copropriétaires

Si l'immeuble constitue une copropriété, vous devez également demander un accord écrit de l'Assemblée générale des copropriétaires. Cet accord écrit doit porter sur l'exercice de l'activité d'exploitation de l'hébergement touristique au sein de l'immeuble.

D) If the operator is a legal entity : check the status

The tourist accommodation facility must be the main or secondary company purpose.
